

Career Connections

It's important to take time to learn about careers and how they connect to your skills & interests!

Spotlight on careers in Human Services

Careers in this pathway are related to economic, political and social systems. Some of the careers options include education, government, law, social services and personal services.

An amazing interview with an Industrial Organizational Psychologist

Important Skills for the Human Services Industry

1. Empathy
2. Emotional Intelligence
3. Active listening
4. Critical Thinking
5. Problem Solving
6. Communication
7. Collaboration
8. Patience
9. Cultural competencies
10. Organization

Human Services Skills and Competencies article

Do you have a passion for helping others in the community, and do you see yourself working hard to improve the lives of people around you? If so, then human services careers might be the perfect fit. This rewarding and challenging career field gives you the chance to directly support people..

Find out more about human services careers and educational pathways here:

Human Services Guide

Career Resource: Xello

Xello self awareness assessments, career exploration, career assessments, college major insight, college features and career planning strategies are all here on Xello.

Students can click here and use their RCS gmail account information to connect to Xello anytime to access resources.

xello

I cannot do all the good that the world needs. But the world needs all the good I can do!

Jana Stanfield